Scope and Content

The Collection 114 Linear ft. Includes a total of 156 Archival Boxes. The Frances Cabaniss Roberts collection covers the historical records of the Cabaniss Roberts family. This collection contains extensive correspondence records of the Cabaniss Roberts family circa 1830 to 1930.

Recognition

Special thanks for work on this collection go to: Robin Brewer, Nan Hall, Toni Reynolds, Joyce Howell.
Dr. Frances Cabaniss Roberts was born December 19, 1916 in Gainesville, Alabama, a daughter of Richard H. and Mary (Watson) Roberts. She graduated from Livingston State College, B.S. in 1937; University of Alabama M.A., 1940, PhD, 1956. Her professional career began as a public school teacher in Sumter County, Alabama and then Huntsville, Alabama, 1937-1952; University of Alabama, Huntsville, instructor 1953-56; assistant professor, 1956-59; associate professor, 1959-61; professor of history beginning in 1961 until her retirement on August 31, 1980.

In Huntsville Roberts taught history at Huntsville High School and then at the University of Alabama in Huntsville where she was a vigorous participant in the formation of that University. (The Extension Center, then at West Huntsville High School, opened in January 1950.) Through 1955-56 she was the only full-time faculty member. She led efforts for UAH to become a true university with Liberal Arts as a vital component, and she was truly the heart and soul of the History Department. Her curiosity about the past, her intellectual flexibility, her interest in her students, and her role as a community preservationist offered a heritage that remains.

In 1988 Dr. Roberts was honored with the dedication of Roberts Recital Hall. The University System Trustees issued this statement concerning the special day: "Dr. Roberts was one of the founding faculty of the University of Alabama in Huntsville, established the University History Department, and was its first full-time history professor. She devoted 18 years to the public schools and 29 years of dedicated service to UAH and accepting only the highest scholarly standards and inspiring generations of students to expand their academic horizons."

The collection of Dr. Roberts’ papers reflects her total immersion in the education, social, religious, musical, and literary life of the community as she led by doing. Frances Cabaniss Roberts died November 5, 2000 at the age of 83, leaving a legacy of leadership and dedication to the community.
Charles and Lucy (Ingram) Cabaniss arrived in the Mississippi Territory with their family in 1809 from Lunenburg County, Virginia. They had earlier stopped in the Nashville, Tennessee area for a short period of time. Six generations of family would eventually live in Madison County, Alabama. His father was Charles Cabaniss, Senior; his mother's name is unknown. Lucy's father was Pines Ingram; her mother was Lucy H. Hamlett. Charles and Lucy had at least twelve children, most of whom settled in Madison County.

In 1809 Charles Cabaniss built Alabama's first spinning factory which was located near Hazel Green, about 10 miles below the Tennessee state line and about 10 miles north of Huntsville. His son, Charles Pines Cabaniss, later worked at the Bell Factory cotton mill as book keeper, accountant, and general manager while others in the family married and settled in the county.

Other children of Charles and Lucy Cabaniss included Elizabeth who married Abner Tate; Martha who married Drury Allen; Caroline who married John Allen, probably a brother of Drury Allen; James Bryan Cabaniss who attended Yale for a short period of time and died of consumption in Darien, Georgia; Sarah Ann Cabaniss who married Chilion White; Arabella who died young; John McNairy Cabaniss who died, also of consumption about 1834 in Claysville, Alabama; Dr. Alfred B. Cabaniss a graduate of Transylvania College (now University of Kentucky) and Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia who became director of the Mississippi State Insane Asylum; William Cabaniss, who lived in Mississippi; Felix Cabaniss who was judged insane in early childhood; and the last and seventh son, Septimus Douglass Cabaniss who became a lawyer in Huntsville. Septimus Cabaniss married Virginia Shepherd of Huntsville in 1843, and the bulk of these papers are related to his family and their activities. Unfortunately, at times these papers are difficult to separate into rigid categories.

Septimus and Virginia Shepherd Cabaniss had at least 12 children. Those known included: Katherine who died at 13 months; Rev. Charles Eugene Cabaniss; Lilla Virginia died at the age of four; Ellen died at age six; Lucy married Baker Roberts and moved to Gainesville, Alabama; Septimus, Jr. eventually moved to Washington state, married and had one son; Mary Ella died at 18 months; Frances (Fannie) worked with and then succeeded her brother, James Budd, at least by the year 1898 and served for 35 years as Register of the Chancery Court in Huntsville, perhaps the first woman to hold a public office in Madison County (Initially she signed documents as F. S. Cabaniss.); Sallie died at the age of one; William suffered from epileptic seizures and died at the age of 30; an unnamed infant died at the age of one; and James Budd (called Budd) who served as clerk of the Chancery Court and died at Bryce Insane Asylum in 1903, age about forty-two. It is the family connection of Baker and Lucy Cabaniss Roberts that led their descendant, Frances Cabaniss Roberts, to return to Huntsville, Alabama.

Series 1, Subseries B: Cabaniss Professional Business
Sub series B (CPB) deals with a small, but active, legal practice of Septimus Cabaniss with his various partners, who included men considered to be outstanding lawyers in the state, from the 1890s to 1938 at the office on the town Square. He studied law in Huntsville under Silas Parsons and practiced law with Leroy Pope Walker, Robert C. Brickell, and Francis P. Ward. These papers are sorted by year, except when an obvious grouping of an estate is evident. The papers continue through professional activities at the Madison County Courthouse including those of his son, James Budd Cabaniss, and his daughter, Fanny Cabaniss, who were clerks of the Chancery Court and a few papers of his son, Septimus, Jr., who owned a bookstore for a brief period.

Series 1, Subseries B, Box 27: Ledger - 1 Item
- Item 1: Ledger - Original 1836-37 mercantile account ledger often covered over with pictures and newspaper accounts of poetry, news, and travel from the 1881-89 era. Because of the 1865 practice letter with notations and the clipping from the Detroit 1889 National Editorial Association conference [with the name of Virginia misspelled as Virgea], this second layer was probably kept by Mary or Susannah Clay as young ladies with their management of the Huntsville Democrat.

Series 1, Subseries C: Cabaniss Personal Correspondence (CPC)
Sub series C (CPC) consists of correspondence from letters from friends, relatives, and their children. Most of the family correspondence involves these children and families of S.D. Cabaniss, and his brothers and sisters who appeared to have been enormous burdens in these difficult years. These papers are sorted "to whom," "from whom," and then chronologically.

Series 5: Roberts Collection - Gainesville, Ala.
Family History. Lucy Cabaniss (sister of Septimus Cabaniss of Huntsville) married Baker Roberts, a merchant, of Gainesville, Alabama in 1879. Their children were Virginia C. Roberts, Ellen D. Roberts, Richard H. Roberts, and Sarah (Sallie) Lucy Roberts. Of these, only Richard Roberts had descendants. Richard married Mary Watson who taught school and later managed their store. Their children were Edna Roberts who married Clell Bailey; Frances Cabaniss Roberts; and Lucy Roberts. Besides the mercantile business, Mr. Roberts managed various land properties and raised cotton. Apparently, at several times his investments became entwined with the financial difficulties in Huntsville. Later Miss Ellen Roberts moved to Huntsville and lived with her aunt, Fannie Cabaniss, in the house on Randolph Street as did later her niece, Lucy Roberts. This also became the home of Dr. Frances Cabaniss Roberts.

Series 6: Pettus/Spraggins Collection

This small collection was an example of a local family giving their collected papers to Dr. Roberts knowing that she would be interested in them, and they would be appreciated. These notes and letters of the WWI era reflect a more simple time during the teen and late teenage years of Ruth Elizabeth Pettus, daughter of merchant R.E. Pettus. Ruth married William E. Spragins in 1949. They had no children.

Series 7: TARCOG (1973) (Top of Alabama Regional Governments)

These are the original documents and snapshots prepared for Madison County’s section of the publication of A Guide to Research Material Available for a Historical Survey of the TARCOG Region. (DeKalb, Jackson, Limestone, Marshall, and Madison Counties.) Madison County was divided by sections and information submitted on a standardized form attempting to locate and assess sites of historical and architectural importance. Dr. Roberts coordinated the local volunteers in this county-wide effort, and UAH is the official repository for this material. Also included is an edition of the results - TARCOG Regional Parks and Open Space Plan.

Series 9: Fearn, Donegan & Co. (F&D)

These papers are a comprehensive set of Huntsville business papers of Dr. Thomas Fearn and James J. Donegan during their years (1837-1854) as cotton commissioners (cotton factors). The office in New Orleans particularly kept a steady business correspondence between the two offices. Included are papers one might expect to maintain a business at the times.

Included in Box 1 is a copy of a paper delivered by Dr. Roberts to the Alabama Historical Association in 1974, "Fearn, Donegan and Company: A Case Study of the Cotton Factorage System in the Tennessee Valley." Original partners of the company included Thomas Lockhart, Dr. Thomas Fearn, and James J. Donegan. Later Isaac W. Moon and Albert Crenshaw of New Orleans were partners, and then William P. Atwood. Matthew W. Steele and Arthur Mosley Hopkins of Huntsville joined the company, and still later Donegan's son, James H. Donegan after his graduation from Georgetown College worked for them.

These papers are sorted by year and then grouped as accounts, receipts, and statements; bills of lading receipts; correspondence from Liverpool, England, the New York office and balance sheets; business correspondence with local customers, then sorted generally by area; some few personally related correspondence (e.g. Weakley, Fearn, Donegan) court case; and a few telegrams.

Folder 26: Boardman Papers (1825-1845) - Apparently lawyer Cabaniss attended to the affairs of Elijah Boardman. Elijah and his brother entered into Huntsville activities at least at the time of statehood, 1819, when John was the printer for the new state constitution. Elijah established an imported stock farm and race horse stables. Both were active but unfortunately both fell into disgrace.
and headed, as many others had, to Mississippi. Included in this file is the Certificate of Stock in the Huntsville Theatre, #1, 1825, racing and boarding accounts with his sometimes partners. The racing events were quite extensive traveling to Nashville and New York among other venues. For further information see Nancy M. Rohr "Off to the Races," Huntsville Historical Review, W-S 2010, pp. 35-57.
